DAILY LOG

Office of the Deputy Director

09 NOV 1962

Date 29 October 1962

1. Scientific Intelligence Digest of 30 October 1962 compares Soviet ICBM's over the last year and shows a big improvement of the SS-8's inflight reliability and a remarkable improvement of the SS-7.

3. Hilsman Reports:

a. "Soviet Strategy in UN Discussions of Cuba"

Not much new except that Hilsman predicts the Soviets will seek to promote "compromise" proposals which tend to undercut the US position. (ER 62-7833)

b. "Soviets Continue to Seek Abandonment of Quarantine While Missiles Stay"

Hilsman reported on Friday that Soviet strategy is designed to gain time and flexibility for political action and to get the quarantine stopped while the missiles stay in Cuba. (ER 62-7848)

c. "Hungarian in Charge of Destalinization Becomes Its Victim"

Gyorgi Marosan, Politburo and Secretariat member, has been ousted and thus has become a victim of the processes he helped to set in motion. Personal rivalries apparently played a key role in his fall. (ER 62-7803)

d. "The Resurgence of Politics in France"

Although Hilsman's people predicted the winning of the de Gaulle-initiated referendum, they further predict that opposition parties have a good chance of winning control of the National Assembly in the elections scheduled for November 18 and 25. (ER 62-7802)

e. "Soviets Soft-Pedal Direct US-Soviet Confrontation"

This Hilsman paper thinks it is probable that the Soviets will risk an incident in the expectation that the result will stimulate pressures on the US to end the quarantine and give rise to compromise proposals.

f. "Communist Chinese Statements Concerning Japan"

An historical paper of overt quotations dating back to 1951. (ER 62-7759)
